SPEAK Coalition Presents: Youth Trivia Night August 19

The St. Clair County Substance Prevention through Early Action and Knowledge (SPEAK) Coalition will be hosting Youth Trivia Night for St. Clair County school age youth Thursday, August 19th, 2021, from 6:00pm – 7:30pm at the YMCA of the Bluewater Area in Port Huron. Youth will be divided into teams to play trivia with questions about pop culture, history, health, sports and youth substance use. Pizza will be provided. Participating youth will receive a free SPEAK t-shirt and team prizes will be awarded. A short presentation on the SPEAK Youth Advisory Council will also be included.

Youth can register for the event at www.surveymonkey.com/R/FWG69RZ or email speak@stclaircounty.org

Preventing youth substance use by providing community education and alternative activities is the primary goal of the Coalition. Specific focus areas include underage drinking, youth marijuana use, youth vaping and adult/youth opioid use which align with the Coalition's mission; "Striving for a healthier community by working together to prevent youth substance abuse."

For more information about the event and the SPEAK Coalition, email speak@stclaircounty.org. Follow us on Facebook @SCCSPEAK. Grant funding provided by MDHHS and Region 10 PIHP.
